Investment Overview

Global Drone Industry

According to the latest research study, the demand of global Drone Market size & share in terms of revenue was valued at USD 30.21 billion in 2022 and it is expected to surpass around USD 260.5 billion mark by 2030, growing at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of approximately 38.75% during the forecast period 2023 to 2030."

With the increased commercialisation, the global drone market forecast is estimated to be around 33% in Defence Industry and 41 % in Enterprise Industry for the year 2027. However, the enterprise drones' segment is expected to be on a steady rise and is expected to account for about 31% in Enterprise Industry and 25% in Defence Industry, of the global drone market share by the year 2030.

Global Drone Defence Market

Drones have found an increased use by defence and security forces across the globe, in surveillance, combat support and electronic warfare. Factors of incorporation of LiDAR, global navigation satellite systems, thermal cameras & infrared imaging systems, and increased abilities to carry heavy payloads are expected to provide a consistent growth in the defence drone market.

Leading Geographical Market

The Northern American region accounted for the largest market share in 2021's global defence drone market. In the race to gain air superiority, countries in the Asia-Pacific region are heavily investing in drone R&D, and are expected to fuel demand.

Market Size

The global defence drone market is estimated at around USD 17.1 billion in 2027, and is expected to grow to USD 23 billion at a CAGR of \sim 11% by 2030.

Global Drone Enterprise Market

Currently, the enterprise drone market is in its nascent stages with regulatory complications such as the Line-of Sight requirement, among others. Drones are expected to be employed on a massive scale in various industries, with construction and real estate and agriculture being the most significant segments of the enterprise drone market due to them being early adopters of the technology. Research and development into advanced drone technology and industry-specific software are expected to drive adoption and improved operational efficiencies. With increasing drone autonomy and an uptick in drone licenses and registrations, the cost of drone adoption will lower, further encouraging more use cases across various industries. With market friendly regulations and widespread adoption by multiple industries, including land surveying & progress monitoring for real estate & construction, crop and animal monitoring for agriculture, and monitoring & inspection for oil & gas, the enterprise drone market is set to record multi-fold growth.

It includes: Counter Drone, Agriculture, Public Safety, Utilities, Construction and Real Estate, Mining and Oil and Gas.

Market Size

The global enterprise drone market was estimated at USD \sim 20.8 billion in 2027 and at USD \sim 28.0 billion in 2030.

Indian Drone Industry

The Indian drone industry has witnessed a rapid growth in recent years, driven by the increasing demand for drones across a range of sectors, including agriculture, infrastructure, public safety, and defence. The GoI is actively promoting the growth of this industry by introducing policies and initiatives to encourage innovation and entrepreneurship in this field. The Civil Aviation Ministry estimates that the Indian drone market shall reach an estimated turnover of INR 120 to 150 billion by 2026.

The Indian drone industry has seen the emergence of several start-ups and companies offering a range of dronebased services, including aerial mapping, surveying, inspection, and delivery. Some of the key players in the industry include TechEagle, IdeaForge, Aarav Unmanned Systems, and Quidich Innovation Labs.
